

Artifact One

Nancy's website is great example of her technology use and her belief that students should have 24/7 access to Spanish resources. She has used the web for years to expand the walls of her classroom. A few of the learning activities on the site are highlighted below:

- Practicing concepts
- Listening and speaking the language
- Creating media
- Home to school communication
- Classroom connections
- Cultural exploration

Click here to enter Nancy's cyber classroom extension.